

Musa's garden

Mari Gonzalez Curia

Musa

- She / Her
- 18 years old

- Altruistic to a fault.
Tends to put others' needs before her own.
- She wants connection and company, but is afraid to be vulnerable.
- She tries very hard to hide her insecurity and melancholy behind an overly positive facade (Toxic positivity)
- Creative, empathetic and resilient.

Dante

• He / They

• 19 years old

• Skeptical and sarcastic.

He doesn't take most things at face value.

• He used to be more curious and adventurous, but was criticized and made fun of for it until he restrained that side of him.

• He usually expects the worst of people and situations to avoid being hurt or disappointed (Defensive Pessimism)

• Introspective, inquisitive and observant.

• Tends to space out and get lost in thought.

This isn't Heaven...

... but I assure you, it is just as SAFE.

My name is MUSA

Welcome to my garden!

I am so happy to finally meet you
face to face—

D-Dante?

He's still on edge...

I-I'm sorry for causing so much trouble...

I didn't expect bringing you
here would be so difficult!

Your world has changed so much...

Why?

A moment ago
you said this was HEAVEN...

... and now
you're acting like it's HELL?

Maybe people don't believe in Muses anymore...

Maybe this...

...was a MISTAKE.

AND ONE MORE THING!

Am I just LOSING
MY MIND?!

Because it kinda feels like I am...

N-No!

FOCUS!

SNAP!

It's alright!

Your mind is perfectly fine, Dante!

Your curiosity is speaking...

... and you are finally listening!

It can be overwhelming...

I understand.

As I understand it,

this garden is a separate realm from your own...

Like another dimension...

...but it is also connected to it!

Gloooow

This little pond is my window into your world.

My magic mirror, if you will.

This is how I could see you and communicate with you...

You mean how you were spying on me...

Thank you for your time!
